Hello,

Even though it is summer, and things can slow down around the parish a little, we do have a variety of things going on this coming week to be aware of:

Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital: Seventy years ago, our archdiocesan parishes and the community came together to build Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital. We continue support of their work every year with a collection that is taken to support Cardinal Glennon's Children Hospital throughout the archdiocese, but this year is more critical than most. As I said, it has been seventy years since the hospital was built, and they need a new structure built to serve the needs of children today and in the future. Construction is already underway on a new Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital to be opened in the Fall of 2027. We can help support this ministry for the children and families throughout our region with this week's annual collection by using an envelope that should be in the packet mailed to you, a contribution can be made online through PushPay, or there are also envelopes available at church.

Corpus Christi Procession: This Sunday is the Feast of Corpus Christi, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The most important celebration of this Feast is, of course, the celebration of Mass. But another tradition of celebration for this Feast, for the Church, and for our parish, has been a Eucharistic Procession. I invite all who can participate to process with us from St. Juan Diego Parish (St. Barnabas Church) at Noon (at the conclusion of their 11am Mass) following the Eucharist down the sidewalk along Main St. to our chapel. If you cannot make the full procession, many have joined the procession as it comes past our church as our Noon Mass concludes to join the procession to our chapel and the final benediction. After this, we will have refreshments in the Parish Hall. Of course, with this being a mile procession, it is all assuming the weather cooperates.

School Expansion Loan Burning and Ice Cream Social: You can call it Fire and Ice. As most homeowners can appreciate, it is reason to celebrate when a construction loan is finally paid off. This month is the final payment of the loan for our 2013 expansion to our school building. It is hard to imagine not having this space and the classrooms that it has provided that now house our middle school, science labs, and school offices. After the 5pm Saturday evening Mass on June 13, we will have ice cream down in the Parish Hall and patio area with a fire pit to burn the loan papers (on the patio.) Thank you to all who have supported our parish through the building campaign and our regular collection that has continued to pay off the loan. While this expense has been paid off, your continued financial support is still needed and appreciated as we have had to delay some other maintenance and expenses while the loan was being paid.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION: ST. JUAN DIEGO TO ASSUMPTION

JUNE 7

Assumption and St. Juan Diego Parishes are called to come together on Sunday, June 7, to celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. Parishioners of all ages, please join us for the same one-mile procession as in previous years, to celebrate the importance of the Real Presence in the Eucharist, while publicly affirming our faith.

Those interested should meet about noon at St. Juan Diego (formerly St. Barnabas), following their 11am Mass, or you can join St. Juan Diego for their 11am Mass in Spanish. Be prepared to process as a group down Main Street towards Assumption, while singing Eucharistic songs and hymns before stopping twice to pray. Two altars will be set up along the route as we proclaim the Word of God and give a Eucharistic blessing. The procession ends with benediction in the Assumption Prayer Chapel, where the Blessed Sacrament is reposed and placed in the tabernacle.

The procession is open to everyone, so please spread the word! Anyone unable to process is always welcome to drive and meet at each altar to pray.

If you choose to carpool from Assumption's lot to St. Juan Diego, we can use volunteers to take people back to St. Juan Diego after the procession. Join us for Hospitality Sunday after the procession.
