Hello,

I should be driving back into St. Louis about now at the end of my vacation (I've been in Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin). Talking to some people about vacation just before leaving, it is kind of interesting how I think our view of vacations has changed over time. When I was young, my family usually took a one week vacation every summer, renting a cabin on a lake in Northern Wisconsin (we were living in Southern Wisconsin) for the third week of August, (just before school would be starting). And other than a few days around Christmas and a very rare other day, I never remember my father having other days off of work. It also seemed like he had to schedule his vacation at the beginning of the year, or maybe he just did that so he knew he would have the time he wanted. My impression was that this wasn't an uncommon practice of families I knew, some might have camped instead of renting a cabin, and a few stayed in hotels at times (but that wasn't the families with 7 kids), and some just did a few days here or there or might have visited relatives who lived somewhere else.

When I think about stories from my parents when they were young, I never recall hearing about vacation. I guess the depression might have had something to do with that, and the only travel I remember hearing about was possibly moving to find a job, or to visit or move in with relatives. When I started working after college at McDonnell Douglas, I think I got two weeks of vacation a year after your first year, and whatever days the company was closed (I thanked the unions for the Christmas holiday we had off). Now I think they start off with three weeks of vacation a year and then there are these personal days which are a combination of what used to be called sick days and other things.

Fortunately, I think most in our society have greater time for vacation than we did in the past. Hopefully, like so many things that we are blessed with, we are grateful for it. It can be too easy to just look around and see someone who has more time off, or maybe more expensive or exotic vacations that we can be jealous of, instead of appreciating what we have, and making good use of it. Do I need to just rest on my vacation? Do something adventurous? See something historical? Learn or experience something different from my normal life? Visit family or friends? Have a 'staycation' to do something we can't do while we are working? Hopefully, whatever we might do or not do, it will be an opportunity to appreciate all we have in our lives more–people, places, things, work, home–and recognize all that God gives us that we need to be grateful for in all of our lives. Ideally, as at the end of any good vacation, we are grateful for the time and experiences we had, but are also ready and grateful for the daily life we are going back to and able to see the blessings and God's presence more clearly in it. You can test me on that tomorrow.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We will soon be starting up Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW). This interactive children's ministry is a time of prayer and reflection on God's word presented with child-friendly language. The program has been very successful. Last year we averaged about 35 children in attendance.

In anticipation of continuing this critical program we need Catechist volunteers. We are scheduled for every Sunday from August 16, 2026 through May 23, 2027. A Catechist's main responsibility is to bring the Word of the Lord to the children and then give a reflection. This reflection should draw out the meaning of the Word of God, apply it to the lives of the children in easy understandable actionable words. Training will be provided.

We are looking for 6-8 adult men and women (18+ years old). Catechist volunteers to rotate every 6-8 weeks in leading CLOW. If you love kids, then you will enjoy being part of and seeing the joy and enthusiasm children display when given the opportunity to hear and respond to God's word. The only requirement that must be met is to be certified in "Protecting God's Children." If you are not certified, that can easily be taken care of through training at your convenience.

Please give prayerful discernment in supporting this important children's ministry. If you would like to volunteer or have any questions, please contact Maria Tadlock at 636-734-2817 or shmilyrt@charter.net.

PSR AND EDGE REGISTRATION IS OPEN!

We are excited to welcome back our PSR families and invite new families to join us for the 2026–2027 school year! Assumption Parish's PSR program supports parents in their role as the primary faith educators of their children by offering Catholic religious education for students in Grades 1-8.

We offer faith formation opportunities tailored to the needs of every age group. Students in First-Fifth Grade participate in our traditional classroom-based PSR program. Students in Grades 6-8 take part in our EDGE Program, a dynamic Catholic middle school youth ministry experience that helps young people grow in their faith in a fun, meaningful, and relevant way. For our eighth-grade PSR students, EDGE also fulfills the requirements for Confirmation preparation. In addition, we are pleased to offer an Adaptive Needs program designed to support students with special learning needs in their faith journey.

Important Note for First Grade Families:
If your child will be entering first grade for the 2026-2027 school year, now is the time to enroll in PSR! Participation in both First and Second Grade is required in order for children to receive First Reconciliation and First Communion in Second grade. We don't want anyone to miss out on these beautiful sacraments, so please spread the word to families with upcoming First Graders.

Our year begins with a Family Mass and Open House on Wednesday, September 9 at 6:15pm, and regular PSR/EDGE classes will begin on Wednesday, September 16. To learn more or to register, simply scan the QR code or visit the PSR page located under the Faith Formation tab on our parish website.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact our Director of Religious Education, Holly Woytus, at hwoytus@abvmtech.org. Let's grow in faith together!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL FOOD DONATIONS

Your Assumption St. Vincent de Paul team would like to express our deepest gratitude for your continued and generous support in helping our neighbors in need. For the food pantry, there are a few things to keep in mind when donating. We are a "crisis" pantry only. This means that the caseworker on call delivers food to those neighbors who call for assistance, no matter what request has been initiated. If we can help with food, it may release other funds to cover utilities, rent, etc. Because of this, we are not able to use very large bulk items (5 lb. bags of rice, 10 lb. bags of beans, etc.) Also, it is helpful to check expiration dates on all food before donating. This saves the donor the effort of carrying up something that can't be passed on.

For your convenience, you may scan the QR code here or on the wooden donation "wagon" in the Narthex, or click the link in the weekly email blast. These direct you to our Amazon shopping list that is kept up to date by our team as needs change. Of course, we also welcome items you prefer to purchase at local stores. Gift cards in the amount of $20 to Aldi's or Walmart are always appreciated. We currently need the following items. (A) denotes items also found on our Amazon list.

- canned pears (A)
- canned peaches (A)
- canned fruit cocktail
- taco shells
- refried beans (A)
- canned chili
- cereal
- Lunch on the Run (A)
- soup cups (A)
- Tuna Helper (A)
- Chicken One Pan dinner kit (A)
- Ready Bath (A)

We are also collecting travel size toiletry items. (shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste, bars of soap, etc.)

Thank you for "Bringing Christ to the World"
Your St. Vincent de Paul Team

HONOR YOUR FAITH WITH A BEQUEST TO ASSUMPTION

God has been your guide as you've lived your life story. Consider a bequest to Assumption as your final chapter, a gift that will bring Christ to the people of O'Fallon for many years to come.

A bequest to Assumption is an excellent way to express how God's grace has made a difference in your life.

Making a bequest is not difficult. You can:

- Add Assumption as a beneficiary of your retirement plan, IRA or life insurance policy.
- Include Assumption as a TOD beneficiary of your bank account or financial assets.
- Add this sentence to your will: "I give to Assumption Catholic Church, O'Fallon, Missouri, 63366, Tax ID #43-0688865, [the sum of $_____ or _____ percent of the net value of my estate] for its general purposes."

For more information, contact Fr. Nick or Mark Vogt in the Parish Office, 636-240-3721. Thank you.

Have you already included Assumption Church in your estate plan?

If you have provided for a gift to our Church, please let us know. It will be helpful to us and your executor when the time comes.
