Hello,

They always say, you have the most people at church on the days you are giving something away. The big two that come to mind are Palm Sunday and Ash Wednesday, but this past week we had a smaller one that was a little different. On Monday, the feast of St. Blaise, we had the blessing of the throats. Not only do you get your throats blessed, but we also do it using two candles that are tied together and then held to the person's throat as the blessing is given. This is a sacramental, that I think, is fairly popular despite the fact that you don't get to take something home with you, but it is memorable and a blessing, one we don't do every day.

Sacramentals are defined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church as "sacred signs which bear a resemblance to the sacraments. They signify effects, particularly of a spiritual nature, which are obtained through the intercession of the Church. By them, men are disposed to receive the chief effect of the sacraments, and various occasions in life are rendered holy." (CCC 1667) These can involve blessings of people, meals, objects, and places and can range from a person making religious vows to rosaries to making the sign of the cross. We have a large book in the Catholic Church called the "Book of Blessings" that has blessings for everything from Advent wreaths to work tools. These can be unique ways in which we can be open to God's graces in our lives, or also special reminders to be open to His graces in the regular parts of our daily lives. We might consider asking to have a rosary or a religious medal blessed, but how about your home, or your car. Things that are a part of our daily life.

One concern some people have about sacramentals and other devout and pious practices that can be related to them, is that they can be viewed as superstitious instead of religious. But this is only a misunderstanding, considering that we are making something happen with our words or actions, instead of recognizing that we are trying to be open to God's direction and graces in our lives. Sacramentals are specifically meant to help us be more open to the graces that we receive through the sacraments and to recognize those graces throughout our lives.

Consider what sacramentals are already a part of your daily lives, and if there are others that might help you to live out a more holy life this week.

Peace,

Fr. Nick

ADULT FAITH SERIES

This winter, we are continuing the video series, "The Wild Goose" with Fr. Dave Pivonka, (discovering a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit) that we started watching in the fall. "Wild Goose" was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. We will view episodes 8-14 in this series this winter/spring starting Feb. 25/27-April 8/10. Don't worry if you weren't there in the fall, or can't make every week, you can still join us any week. There will be a moderator to show the video and help get our discussion going two times each week:

- ◆ Tuesday mornings 9-10:30am | Parish Hall, Meyer Rooms
- ◆ Thursday evenings 6:30-8pm | Rectory Basement

Consider coming to watch and talk with fellow parishioners or watch with a group you know. You can find the videos on the Formed.org website by going under the Programs column to Faith Formation. The Wild Goose will be on that page along with the Search that we viewed last winter, and many other series.

ASSUMPTION MINISTRIES GIVE THE GIFT OF SELF

Stewardship is a way of life at Assumption, not just an accounting of how we use our gifts. The Men's Group recently gave back by hosting a Pancake and Sausage Breakfast in the parish center. This is just one of our many ministries that gives the gift of self.

Becoming actively involved in a parish ministry can help you take one step closer to Jesus. If you are not part of one of our many ministries, now is the time to get involved! Scan the QR Code or visit us online at assumptionbvm.org and check out the "stewardship" menu at the top of the page to learn more about Assumption ministries.

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING MEN'S WHITE HOUSE RETREAT

If you haven't had the opportunity to go on a Men's White House Retreat, talk to these men of the parish: Mike Lennon, Doug Prize, Bob Hackman, Dan Lamartina, Rich Thomson, Mike McCleish, and Harry Partl. They recently experienced the January 23-26 retreat and journeyed with the Lord in a renewal of mind, body and spirit.

Interested? Watch for more information about White House Retreat opportunities in the bulletin, on our website, or in the Assumption Friday Enewsletter.

WELCOME BABY CHARLOTTE

Congratulations to Assumption's Youth Minister, Becky Whitaker, and her husband, James, on the arrival of their new baby girl, Charlotte Rose.

Named for St. Charlotte of the Resurrection, the eldest of the just canonized Sixteen Carmelite Martyrs of Compiègne and St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, who lived and served in the St. Charles area, Charlotte has a powerhouse team of heavenly intercessors and holy, strong women praying for her in heaven!

Becky and James are hopeful that St. Charlotte's example of peace and mercy in the face of nonsense and St. Rose's example of praying and serving always— even if it's not how you intended to— will inspire Charlotte to always seek the Lord and seek to love in all things.

Please keep the Whitaker family in your prayers as they begin this new chapter in their lives.
